Roll off the jet, no time to sleep
I pray to God that I can keep this old machine from coming apart again
You call it night, I call it day
I barely see you through the rain
Please tell me why, you're fading away... (fading away)

Are you waiting for some golden age to save us again?
Tell your radio we're on our way
You'll never be sad again
It's gonna be great!

Baby, it's a killer
Stone cold killer all for you
Baby, it's a killer
Baby, it's so hard
Stone cold killer all for you

Light up, lean back I'm in your head
With all the things you wish you said
I'll take you away
Take you away again
But you and I we're dying breeds
Relics from last year's scene
Our time in the sun is fading away... (fading away)

Are you waiting for some golden age to save us again?
Tell your radio we're on our way
You'll never be sad again
It's gonna be great!

Baby, it's a killer
Stone cold killer all for you
Baby, it's a killer
Baby, it's so hard
Stone cold killer all for you

Are you waiting for some golden age
The trades are in. The sales are thin
The suits are pissed again
It's gonna be great!

Baby, it's a killer
Stone cold killer all for you
Baby, it's a killer
Baby, it's so hard
Stone cold killer all for you
Baby it's a killer
Stone cold killer
