I should have been a nightmare
Selling tickets at a street fair-
"Ride away your sorrow!"
Life.
Careful what you wish for
You get a sucker punch and want more
Am I crazy?

We're no longer breaking, burdened by this undertaking
Wish that I could stay lost but this noose it just keeps pulling tighter

Now, Saturn's Child is coming home
Gonna reap what has been sewn
The light machine is starting over (Over)...

Saturn's Child is coming!
Saturn's Child is coming!
Saturn's Child is coming!
Saturn's Child is coming!
(Careful what you wish for)...
