He's coming out, He's coming in
The Static Entry's out again
Check the silver tides, and cool the Masterline

Call me when he falls asleep
We'll try to reach him in a dream
We can't afford to lose another one

We are your engineers calling down through the years
We want you!
We are your engineers calling down through the years
We want you!
We want you!
We want you!

I came to you in velvet, screaming at the speed of sound
From the future, from the Children of the Underground
In the sky, we love to watch to the wheels go 'round and 'round
'Round and 'round

They told me I could be in any time I please
And I...
I gotta be a wizard and a supersonic teenage Rock and Roller
Mind Controller
Bend me into 1975
Rock and Roller
Mind Controller
Send me back where I belong

We want you!
We want you!
We want you!
