Many times in my life i've felt as if an angel walks with me

leading it to the one who'll be taking over demands someone who's strong, someone who can love and understand

someone who accepts the way I am and who will love me for that, just for that.... yeah

Here you are my destiny, and nothing can be better noooo

lets make a promise we'll always stay this way yeah...

Did you know love was made for us, only fairytales come close enough, a love created in heaven in all my dreams I've never been even near to the feeling you give to me I believe that we are to strong to break our trust,
Do you know love was made for us.

When I'm holding you tight my mind is taken far into our past foundations that we made to last through the stormiest nights...

There is no doubt that all I ever need I have with you, I treasure every moment spent with you and I pray nothing will change nothing will change...
Together we are unbreakable ohhhh and nothing comes between us nooo no no I'm so grateful to have you by my side.....

Did you know love was made for us, only fairytales come close enough our love created in heaven and all my dreams have never been even near to the feeling you give to me I believe that we are to strong to break our trust, do you know love was made for us....

*Was made for USSSS.....*

*Only fairytales*

*Our love created in, in HEAVEN.....*

*And ALL my dreams, never big*

*Near to the feeling*

*Did you know that love was made for ussss.....*

*Did you know that love was made for uss.... yeahhh ohhhh*
