Outside a starlit night inside a raging storm
Words of anger fly like many times before We'll fight the battle baby
nobody wins the war

I'll say I don't need you, you'll say you don't want me
We'll sharpen up our lies, really cut each other deep
Why do we do it, baby
What are we fighting for

There must be one good reason
Why we keep on tryin'
For all the pain I'm feelin'
For all the tears you're cryin'
Oh, if it's not love
What are we fighting for

Why don't you say you're sorry,
Why can't I say I'm wrong
How much more damage can we do until we come undone
Why do we do it baby
Where are we fighting for

There must be one good reason
Why we keep on tryin'
For all the pain I'm feelin'
For all the tears you're cryin'
Oh, if it's not love
What are we fighting for

Girl, aren't we still in love
That's what we're fighting for
