Bright and brittle, severed star
How I wonder where you are
Eyes shine from a flame
You are the air, you feed my flame

Time, it's a funny thing
It's got me up tonight

I'm wishing... the two of us
Reminiscing... two specks of dust
How I miss it... in fear of trust
I'm wishing... we start to rust

Turning pages from the past
Drawing lines that I cast
Seems so thin and far
Find the skin beneath the scar

A heart remembers everything
I've got you on my mind

I'm wishing... the two of us
Reminiscing... two specks of dust
How I miss it... in fear of trust
I'm wishing... we start to rust

It's not enough
Not to trust
It's not enough
Not to try

I'm wishing... the two of us
Reminiscing... two specks of dust
How I miss it... in fear of trust
I'm wishing... the two of us
