I've got bad blood
I've done bad things
How can I control myself
If I enjoy these nasty habits?

I can hear the voices stirring
All the awful things they're planning

I don't play nice
I don't give in
Was it nature?
Was it nurture?
Maybe I was just born evil

It's no use, I can't control it
Maybe it's a sign not to quit

I can guarantee
I will do evil things
The only way that you can stop me now
Is if you put me in the ground
Somewhere I'll never be found

I am most disturbed
I deserve to be interred
Don't you dare turn your back on me
I'll attack without a warning sign
Terror lurks in the night

I've got nine lives
I've done grim acts
No remorse
Should I feel guilty
If I adore these warped offenses?

I can hear the voices stirring
All the awful things they're planning

I don't feel pain
I don't back down
My thoughts are filled with cruel intentions

Maybe my conscience is possessed

It's no use, I can't control it
Maybe it's a sign not to quit

I can guarantee
I will do evil things
The only way that you can stop me now
Is if you put me in the ground
Somewhere I'll never be found

I am most disturbed
I deserve to be interred
Don't you dare turn your back on me
I'll attack without a warning sign
Terror lurks in the night

I am not long for this world
And I yearn for the day that my life's snuffed out

All these sinister thoughts
And my ghoulish transgressions

Cut me down in a hail of bullets
Remove my head to make sure I don't get up
To be safe just burn my body
Before they consecrate me

I can guarantee
I will do evil things
The only way that you can stop me now
Is if you put me in the ground
Somewhere I'll never be found

I am most disturbed
I deserve to be interred
Don't you dare turn your back on me
I'll attack without a warning sign
Terror lurks in the night
