They are the ones that you call friends
They are the ones that you call late at night
They are the ones who sweep away our past
One way with their hand

They are the ones that you call family
They are the ones that you hold close to your heart
They are the ones who see the danger in you
And won't understand

[Chorus]

I can hear your voice in the wind,
Are you calling to me, down the long road
Do you really think there's an end?
I have followed my dreams
Down the long road

You are the one that I met long ago
You are the one who saw my dream
You are the one who took me from my home
And left me off somewhere
But somehow I feel you are here
You are waiting in that dream
And somewhere down this road we will awake
We'll be at the start again

[Chorus]

I can hear your voice in the wind,
Are you calling to me, down the long road
Do you really think there's an end?
Cause I have lived my whole life
Down the long road, down the long road

I gotta find you tonight, find you tonight
Are you waiting for me?
I will follow my dream, follow my dream
I will live my whole life
Are you waiting for me?

[Chorus]

I can hear your voice in the wind,

Are you calling to me, down the long road
Do you really think there's an end?
I have followed my dreams
I will live my whole life,
Down the long road, down the long road.
