So stay the fuck away from me

These gross beings with bodies of lies
And venom bound to their existance

Light exludes you, light eludes you [x2]

Confounded by the simplest task
A fractured comprehension
Confounded by the simple task
Grow yourself a beard

Killing quialities
Completely characterless [x2]

Sand, sand
Buried by the grits
And covered by this wasteland
Sand washed between my fingers
With your heart in my hand

A deathly breath across this desert sky
With your heart in my hand
A deathly breath across this desert sky [x2]
With your heart in my hand

More fires in the world than stars in the sky
Sand washed between my fingers
With your heart in my hand

So stay the fuck away from me
Stay the fuck away from me
Stay away

Sand [x4]
