Always lookin' for the Bigger picture, baby
Never lookin' at what's right in front of your eyes
Why don't you see me baby
Coz I know you'll need me darlin'
And honey I am here in front of your eyes

Oh, and I know oh oh
That you'll come running back some day
And I know oh oh
That you'll come running back when you need me
And baby some day you'll need me
When your days are getting shorter
When your nights are getting colder
Baby I know

You're always simple baby
And don't do nothin' crazy
And when you do I know that you will just
Fall Away
Can't be without me baby
Coz I know you'll need me darlin'
And honey I know oh oh

Coz I know oh oh
That you'll come running back some day
And I know oh oh
That you'll come running back when you need me
And baby some day you'll need me
When your shadow's a little bit father ahead
And you don't know where all your time has been spent
And the one thing you know,
Is the one thing I'm telling you

Oh oh oh
That you'll come running back some day
And I know oh oh
That you'll come running back when you need me
And baby some day you'll need me

So do your simple thing
And look behind the skies

Pay no attention to the one that know-oh's
Just walk behind your shadow
And waste your precious time
But baby I am here in front of your eyes
You're searching for that love
That you think can take you away
But why don't you stay?

Coz I know, oh oh
That you'll come running back some day
And I know, oh oh
That you'll come running back when you need me
And baby some day you'll need me
Coz honey I know
