Our scene is all scattered
But it doesn't really matter
Because come what may
We've got to stick together
Communication is a must
From the east coast to the west
Sharing plans and thoughts
United we're at our best

It's not just talk
Believe in me
More and more people
Are starting to see
A stab in the neck
Won't make things right
Support the other guy
And join the fight

It's not just talk
Believe in me
More and more people
Are starting to see
A stab in the neck
Won't make things right
Support the other guy
And join the fight

Now it may seem
Like we've sung this before
Get it through your head
It's one you can't ignore
Our minds, souls, and guts
Still remain the same
With open eyes, we'll sing this again

It's not just talk
Believe in me
More and more people
Are starting to see
A stab in the neck
Won't make things right
Support the other guy

And join the fight

(first verse)

It's not just talk
Believe in me
More and more people
Are starting to see
A stab in the back
Won't make things right
Support the other guy
And join the fight
