So come away with me
Cos I don't want to leave you alone
I pretend to be someone else
Like I'm locked in a bottle of my own
And I'm aware of my behaviour
I'm aware that I'm a danger to you
Don't be shy, don't be a stranger
Cos it's raining like I want it to

Don't bother cos I'm always on the run
And you'll never feel anything else
In the dark alone
Don't hurt her
Cos I've gone again
It's my heart and its under the weather
In a storm with no sun

I'm near, quite near to you
Like a patient that is pale in the face
Like blood, like blood it thickens
This nightmare starts to fall out of place
I'd help but I'm a bit busy
With this stranger that has run out of time
It rings a heavy warning
Oh why oh why do I feel fine

Don't bother cos I'm always on the run
And you'll never feel anything else
In the dark alone and
Don't hurt her
Cos I've gone again
It's my heart and its under the weather
In a storm with no sun

Don't bother cos I'm always on the run
But you'll never feel anything else
In the dark alone and
Don't hurt her
Cos I've gone again
It's my heart and its under the weather
In a storm with no sun
