There hasn't been a night go by
Where I haven't craved for you and cried
I walked that lonely beach alone...

I listened while the warm wind
Whispered your name
Remembered how your body
glistened in the rain
I fought the memories and the pain
That keep hanging on...

Beneath the big Miami Moon
Shining down on you
Dancing in your eyes so blue
The way it used to do

Baby come back soon
I still believe that dreams come true
Under that gold doubloon
The big Miami Moon

I'm so sorry that I broke your heart
But I sailed the ship of fools out in the dark
Never dreamed we'd fall apart
Back then...

If you don't come home to stay
The ship should just take me away
'Cause I'm so scared that I may Never see you again...

CHORUS (2x)
