VERSE 1: I'm falling down
Everywhere I go
I'm dropping out
Of everything I do
I backing down
Because I'm losing my life
So lets turn this around

Chorus:
If I am the sun would you be my moon?
Losing all faith hope it returns so soon
Reliving my life every single day
Just don't want this eclipse to fade away

Verse 2: She took it all
She took it all away
She held me down
She held me down again
She slammed the door
Right in my face
But I opened it again

Chorus:
If I am the sun would you be my moon?
Losing all faith hope it returns so soon
Reliving my life every single day
Just don't want this eclipse to fade away

Bridge: it's over now, pack your bags and leave
Don't come back, just find a new life
Live it right, don't ruin it again
Before it's all gone wrong
