So here I am, I'm Breaking down
I'm so lost and I hope I'll never be found again
I wish my pain, would go away
But thanks to you it will always stay

Every tear you cry tells a different story
Some filled with hate others with glory
But as you Fade away, I begin to die
Now my life is nothing but the leftovers of last night

I'm watching you, you take your time
Hurry up or I'll have to put you in line
Your gone to soon, just coz you wanted to
But thanks to you I have to stay

Every tear you cry tells a different story
Some filled with hate others with glory
But as you Fade away, I begin to die
Now my life is nothing but the leftovers of last night

Solo

Every tear you cry tells a different story
Some filled with hate others with glory
But as you Fade away, I begin to die
Now my life is nothing but the leftovers of last night
