VERSE: Everyday your on my mind
Cause what I feel for you is hard to find
But if she found out bout you she would cry
If I lived without her so would I
So now I'm waiting... waiting for you

CHORUS: So I'm running to you
I cannot escape you
To feel your touch, the faith you prove
So now I'm running to you

VERSE: Hearts were never made of stone
This will clutch you to the bone
But I know holding you is wrong
Well tonights the last night we'll be alone
So now I'm waiting... waiting for you

CHORUS: So I'm running to you
I cannot escape you
To feel your touch, the faith you prove
So now I'm running to you

BRIDGE: Turn around, Fill my eyes with you
Til' everythings alright
Turn around, Fill my eyes with you
Til' everythings alright

CHORUSx2: So I'm running to you
I cannot escape you
To feel your touch, the faith you prove
So now I'm running to you

I'm running to you x3
