You better ready. Time is running up. You are going to die. Stupid fuck.
You are just a poser. We are underground. We are black metal
Fundamentalists. We will put you inside ground. Since the day you born. You Have been afraid. I was never born. I was ready made. From the blood of Satan and the bones of goat. You are going to Hell. It's the only road.
This is no longer music. This is a way of life. We will kill all angel. We Will kill all life. Corky-Jesus cunt. You will be dead. You are going to Shit yourself when you see the demon-head. No one will hear you when you
Scream in pain. You are going to suffer when we open up your wrist-vein. No
One will hear you when you scream in death. We will bury you in Hell where
You will rot yourself to death.
