"Fire"

Visit "Fire" on MotoLyrics.com

A star in the darkness - shining bride

Tells the story of a tired man

A man who always was in care for his friends

And if he was your friend you never had to be alone

And though he was a well liked man

Inward he was a lonely guy who never got along with his life

It is sad but true

That death always takes our best ones too early

Now -- to your tribute

I inflame a never ending...

Fire -- that burns so high

Fire -- that touches the sky
