I've seen her walking around the block
With her red short dress and her sexy look Everywhere she turns around
People stare at her and just can't take off their eyes
Can see on her face, the power that she has It's in the way that she moves or in the way that she acts
She's like a prisoner inside your head
Once you've looked into those eyes
There's no way to go back

(Pre-chorus:)

It just gives me a thrill, to have this feel of attraction
I just can't get enough, I'm addicted to love
And I think she's the one tonight

(Chorus:)

She's a heartbreaker, heartbreaker

I've seen her walking in the street
With her high-heel boots and her sexy lips
Everytime I close my eyes
I can see her in my arms, and we're makin' love

(Pre-chorus)

(Chorus)

Hey listen baby, you don't need to be so tough
I'll buy ya a couple of drinks, take ya to my place
And everything's gonna be alright...

(Pre-chorus)

C'mon baby, I know what you feel inside ( and ya know what I need )
So let's get wild, lookout!
