This goddamned crime must have an end tears and blood every day only the faith is not more than hate only the pride is not more than a shame haunted from religions the edge of madness has arrived the deadly edge is crossed women enfolded in blue dead bringing capes brothers kill brothers and god the innocence of peace tears and blood no angel craft

the apocalyptical killing hands where once the holy prays it's a mortal mind to convert the world to create that all will be the same see the end and feel the pain see the child and his burning heart justice never comes unless the reason is far away your ignorance is guilty you are no other tears and blood to wake up
