"When Eddie Came Home From Nam"

When my brother came marchin home from Nam,
Hoorah Hoorah; his lady had married another man Haroo, Haroo!
His whole world was shattered and torn all apart
Nothin else mattered, she'd broken his heart...
it was so damned tragic...
When Eddie came home from Nam!!!

When a friend of mine came marching back, from Desert Storm, it seemed that noone appreciated his uniform.
He said if his fighting for freedom meant no more to us
he wished he had stayed on that dog-gone bus..
and had just kept on going...
When he came back from desert storm.

Today another soldier died in South Irac
Like many too many men before him he's not marchin back
Just a young man only 18 years old all his family has now is a flag left to hold..
We should all be mourning...
Our fallen soldiers in So. Irac!

Music to be as, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."
Orriginally written by Patrick S. Gilmore.

I have two more verses not listed. W.P.H.
