They're all standing in a line
Waiting for the sign
Wondering who is next
To find glory and success

They won't look me in the eye
'Cause they now that any day
They'll might have to push me down
'Cause I'm standing in their way

Walking over bodies to be the one in the lead
There is no excuse, no regrets, just greed

I won't follow
The ones that bring me down
Who sacrifice it all
Cross the line to rise and shine
I won't follow
I'll walk the other way

As they sacrifice it all
Cross the line to rise and shine

They're standing in the line
Dying to fit in
The fucked up humankind
Won't stop for anything

Walking over bodies to be the one in the lead
There is no excuse, no regrets, just greed

I won't follow
The ones that bring me down
Who sacrifice it all
Cross the line to rise and shine
I won't follow
I'll walk the other way
As they sacrifice it all
Cross the line to rise and shine
