

Crucifix "Rise And Fall"

Visit "Rise And Fall" on MotoLyrics.com

Too many times i've wished i had said
All the thoughts that were in my head
To all the people that i adore
The splendor
Never rises to what it's for
I've had enough, i've said enough
This picture paints a thousand words
Behind this image,
The feelings never heard
You tell me to forgive and forget
But my love can only hurt
[chorus]
The curtains have finally
Closed
From the ruins i finally rose
To the melancholy of another day
This fate i can never betray
[chorus]
This is my
Rise and fall , rise and fall
