I had a feeling (that was only once)
that my life had meaning, but that doesn't mean too
much
I was going places then I never left Reciting phrases that I never meant
That I never meant
That I never meant
I found myself then I threw it away.
Living in hell is a lot like today.
I changed my mind (but I can't spare change)
and what I was trying to find, but it still found me.
I had a feeling that was only once
that my life had meaning but that doesn't mean too
much
I was going places that I never left
That I never meant
Reciting phrases that I never meant
I need room to breathe
Can you give that me?
I need room to breathe
Can you give that to me?
Can you give that to me?
Can you give that?
Begin descension
Begin descension
Begin descension
Begin the end
