Washing up to prepare for the night
Resigned to the blood
A physician tries to learn
There's no glory, it's haunting

I saw such a thing
All those years ago
Bodies torn
Till the hurt that they've known is gone

With a bit of soap
It's just a dangerous façade
Watching him shake
Frightened of the blade

Straighten the blade
I beckon
Not taught the right way

Washing up to prepare for the night
Resigned to the blood
A physician tries to learn
There's no glory, it's haunting

I saw such a thing
All those years ago
Bodies torn
Till the hurt that they've known is gone

With a bit of soap
Watching him shake
Frightened of the blade
