More then ever, I have felt
True confusion in my life
It is so hard to decide
Am I insane?

Drifting out of my sane mind
My enjoyment overrides
Have I stolen innocence?
I am out of control?

Chase the ones
That want to be the sunlight
This here life will be a lie

Take heed of wisdom
Clear as the night
What I don't see's
A warning

Never wanted to
Never wanted to
Release my grip

Only had one chance to
Watch you loose consciousness
Squeeze and drain the life from your outer shell
Charged with murder one day I will be

More then ever, I have felt
True confusion in my life
It is so hard to decide
Am I insane?

Drifting out of my sane mind
My enjoyment overrides
Have I stolen innocence?
I am out of control?

We're soaking

I don't know
You're sulking

Seduction
Enthralled

Chase the ones
That want to be the sunlight
This here life will be a lie

Take heed of wisdom
Clear as the night
What I don't see's
A warning

Hollow, I see my thoughts in front of me
Consciousness drifts away
Confusion overwhelms me
How can I stop this?

Never wanted to
Never wanted to
Release my grip

Only had one chance to
Watch you loose consciousness
Squeeze and drain the life from your outer shell
Charged with murder one day I will be

Hollow, I see my thoughts in front of me
Consciousness drifts away
Confusion overwhelms me
How can I stop this?
