"I know you don't kiss me like you used to do
And now you don't touch me like I want you to Now I realize that I could lose it all
Do I take the fall? Walk away alone

There's a pain that I'm feeling, that Iâ€™ve tried to hide
You may have your reason but you hurt my pride
And Iâ€™m holding on cause weâ€™re not said and done Youâ€™re the one, youâ€™re the only one

* I got all my life to live if you say you love me
I got all my love to give if you say you want me
I will take this heart and show you what itâ€™s worth
I will take this lip to kiss you like itâ€™s first time that you love me
Just say you love me

I donâ€™t wanna hurt you but Iâ€™m not gonna lie
I could say that I love you. I could break down and cry
Now I walk a million miles to hear you say Donâ€™t walk away, donâ€™t walk away

[Repeat *]

Crazy for the love you gave me
Youâ€™re the memory, the time we share together me and you
I canâ€™t live another day, I canâ€™t love another way without you
Without you

[Repeat *]"
