All I wanna do is fucking chill.
Just sit back and keep my cool,
It's like everytime things seem okay, things go wrong
and straight fuck up my day.

There's no doubt that the older you get
Its only harder, life gets hectic,
But I'll face it by realizing
So much of this shit is meaningless.

So when I'm stressed I throw on my hood,
Roll with the crew, it's all good.
Cuz it's stupid to spend time thinking about
How things could have been if you did it again.

There's no doubt that the older you get
Its only harder, life gets hectic,
But I'll face it by realizing
So much of this shit is meaningless.

We'll never understand the reasons for everything,
There's no use searching. We just gotta have faith.
Cuz what's been done is what will be done.
Why waste the time we got under the sun.
All this stress is meaningless.
It's time to see things positive.
People bitch too much,
They just don't get it.
Unless you're chillin', life's just so fucking meaningless!
