Your life is just as hard as the next,
If not easier, no need to act depressed.
When shit happens you gotta take it in stride.
When are you gonna try to realize:
You gotta give respect to get respect,
You gotta listen up before you're heard.
So stop looking for pity as if you're the only person in this fucking world.

Your life is just as hard as the next,
If not easier, no need to act depressed.
When shit happens you gotta take it in stride.
Who the fuck are you kidding?
Be honest with yourself.

Sick of the same old cliché? Fuck shit. (We're livin' healthy!)
No time to dick around with all of the dramatics. (We're gettin' real!) Yah, yah, life sucks but we'll get by. (You know the deal!)
Straight up the realest shit. (So get down with it!)
