She had a divine voice, it was so delighting,
I'd love to fall in her, I'd take up any fight.
Blood will drop (x2)
Blood will drop for her, now! (x2)
She might spread out her wings for me (x2)

Then I closed my eyes,
I've never seen the darknes,
There was a shining light,
A shadow touched me.
I close my eyes but I still see,
Do you hear her when she cries? (when she cries)
The devil inside me!

That man I share my bed with him,
Is raping her, she's crying.
I cry with her, she's mine.
Now is dropping blood for her (x2)
A red stain on my smile (x2)

Then I closed my eyes,
I've never seen the darknes,
There was a shining light,
A shadow touched me.
I close my eyes but I still see,
Do you hear her when she cries? (when she cries)
The devil inside me!

"I was about to bury him when the shadow left me.
He opened his eyes, he's alive, he's gonna hunt for my blood!"
