So what if your jeans are torn
They've been torn since cross were cool
I wanted you for a little while
You got it run by a million miles

Big deal, what a thrill, what a let down
Kissing in your car while i shoulda been out
I wanted a part of you really, now
I want it all right now

Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone
You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead
You really blown it
Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone
You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead
You really blown it

In the slow lane
Never change the way that i feel
Go home, never know, never be real
'Cus that one thing you said was true
I'm gonna find somebody new

Make up, break up
Always the same
Get out, what about
You and me say
I've been hanging 'round you too long
When summer come im gone

Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone
You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead
You really blown it
Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone

You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead
You really blown it (blown it)

I wanna be higher then the clear sky
I wanna be divin in the blue
I gotta be out in the evening
Jellyhead,
Without you (without you)

Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone
You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead
You really blown it
Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone
You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead

[fade out]
(i feel it)
Over and over i feel it
Boyfriend your alone
You must be outta your mind
Jellyhead
