As the fire is burning in my head insanely.
I forget the taste of your lips.

Really do I want to escape from this steel sun
That constantly drops crying creatures.

Everyone gets fucking angry!

You'll be gone forever
And memories want fill my heart.
Singing our sever
I'll forever fall apart.

Ahah, No way to recreate my life!

I'm locked into my grave,
I'm a creepy witness,
Tell me how to behave
My bloody mistress.
I know this awful caige,
Wont ever be broken.
The story of this age
Wont ever be spoken.

Everything lost it's aim,
Faded away like a flame.
Loosing myself in blame,
My only mate is pain.

Ahah, Nothing has really changed!

I'm locked into my grave,
I'm a creepy witness,
Tell me how to behave
My bloody mistress.
I know this awful caige,
Wont ever be broken.
The story of this age
Wont ever be spoken.
