I know your kind
I've seen that smile
I won't let you come back

But you know
Just how to make
My world fall back
Just how to make
My world turn black

I cannot breath
My mind is blank
You're laughing when I cry

Why did you bring
My happiness so deep inside
My happiness there just to die

Just how to make my world fall back
Just how to make my world turn black
On sunless days we're side by side

Sunless days
Sunless days
My emotional decay

You're hiding now
I'll cut you out
My sky will gather clouds

Where can I go
I try to hide but can not find
I try to leave all things behind

My happiness so deep inside
My happiness there just to die
'Cause on sunless days we're side by side

Sunless days
Sunless days
My emotional decay

I try to hide but can not find
I try to leave all things behind
'Cause on sunless days we're side by side

Sunless days
Sunless days
My emotional decay
