I was chosen out of thousands yes i won the race
And here i am with my success and with my babyface
I love the girls screaming at me taking me for a god
And i am sure that when i stare at them they will fall to the ground
I am the real chartbreaker even though i'm someone else
For as long as you don't know that, i will ring my bells
This is business as usual, something you know nothing about
So you can shut your mouth and take a seat here in the crowd
And i say

Got my hands in my pants and i feel all right
Got no stress tell you no lies
Here I go again
Got my hands in my pants and i feel so free
Do you think that there's anyone better than me

I just smile when i have to smile
Even though i'm feeling down inside
I think this is how it has to be, how it has to be
I enjoy the spotlight shining on me
I really love myself on the tv screen
Is anyone better than me, better than me
Feels like a superstar, everyone's with me
I'm the king of the world, i'll make history
Is anyone better than me, better than me
I got a microphone, i got the biggest show
Nobody calls me on the phone
And i'm not the one, really not the one
That i once used to be
