a diary, cased in old
leather
tell the story of a swiss medicine
he wrote down his precious life
and filled the empty pages with his lifework

you can read about my father
he was known as a doctor and healer
and his ownership of property

you can read about my
mother
the one i loved more than

everything
she died in childbed as she gave birth to my brother

is death the final end

can i reanimate those i once
loved

to his german teacher weidmann he remained faithful and according to his theory
he created a new life

death isn't the end
i can reanimate those i once
loved
