I heard a conversation just the other day
Two young men were talking and I couldn't walk away
Cause one of the young men said that he made a change
He just gave his life to Christ and he cared what people say

May people feel like you
No you're not the only one
But on this Christain journey
Everything ain't all fun

Everything on TV ain't really what it is
So before you care about who's listening
Let me tell you this

Everybody's always talking bout what they business is
But your business ain't nothing without a little Jesus in it
Cause he reigns forever
Lord you reign forever
Lord you reign forever
Lord you reign forever

I recall a time when I was scared to wave my hands
When I was in church while I was with some friends
But they wern't the ones I called when I got in jam
But my mind kept going back to when I was with them
That goes to show

May people feel like you
No you're not the only one
But on this Christain journey
Everything ain't all fun

Everything on TV ain't really what it is
So before you care about who's listening
Let me tell you this

Everybody's always talking bout what they business is
But your business ain't nothing without a little Jesus in it
Cause he reigns forever
Lord you reign forever

Lord you reign forever
Lord you reign forever

Lord you reign forever
From a nation to a nation
Lord you reign forever
You're a savior
Lord you reign forever
L O healer my provider
Lord you reign forever

Everybody's always talking bout what they business is
But your business ain't nothing without a little Jesus in it
Cause he reigns forever
Lord you reign forever
Lord you reign forever
Lord you reign forever
