You stand there at the door last night
You looked at me, I knew
You kept our secret inside

Every time youre close to me
It was like in my dreams
I thought our love was a fantasy

Catch the dreams and dont give up tonight
I touch your soul
Deep inside I hear your words

Look in my eyes
Youll see theres no reason
For any doubts nor any lies

The time has come and you are gone
I miss the promises
And love from the shining sun

And first you said just trust in me
And now youve changed your mind and say
That its better to be free

Forget the dreams and walk away from me
And dont look back
But deep inside I hear your words

Look in my eyes
Youll see theres no reason
For any doubts nor any lies

Look in my eyes
But now its too late
I cry another thousand tears

All the nights I spent with you
Cant forget the time we shared
And the pain is hard to bear
