You're the wind beneath my wings
You are the air that I breathe
You're my shelter from the storm
My guarding homeland

You're the wave I'm riding on
You are the water I drink
You save me from drowning in the sea
My saving ark

Were two of a kind
The perfect match like a corny rhyme
Is it meant to be for our love
To pass the test of time

Night and day
Night and day
No matter what may come
I'm still in love (with you)

You're the light in the dark
You are the fuel to my fire
You're my shield from the heat
My last resort

Were two of a kind
The perfect match like a corny rhyme
Is it meant to be for our love
To pass the test of time

Night and day
Night and day
No matter what may come
I'm still in love (with you)

Should maybe someday
A crunch part our way
After rain comes the sun to stay

Night and day
Night and day

No matter what may come
Im still in love (with you)
