I sat with you and talked about things I couldn't live without,
And you told me that I wasn't happy Yet, you picked me up from off the ground, we ran around that awful town
I told you things I never told anyone

You said you were fine, but then you changed your mind
Don't know where you went, but I know that you left (Ooooh oh oh oh ooooh oh oh oh oh ohhh)

I know you're telling everyone the things I said and that I'm dumb
But I know you like no one else does, remember?
And when I think about that day, I notice that the sky turns an awful gray
'Cause you were the storm on my parade always

mind
Don't know where you went, but I know that you left (Ooooh oh oh oh ooooh oh oh oh oh ohhh...)

No I'm not perfect yet, at least I don't pretend To be the worlds best friend
I know you won't admit it but I wish that you would quit it
Oh why do you hate me, why do you hate me, why
Why do you hate me, why do you hate me, why
Why do you hate me, why do you hate me, why
Why do you hate me, why do you hate me, why
Why do you hate me, why do you hate me, why
