[I.]

There is no time, and there is no future
People are dying on the streets
Killing and dying in the name of god
No honour, no hope and no rights
When are we going? What will it give us?
We don't need more bleeding violence!
Giant funeral, the end of the ends?
Desert of the graves and burning homes
... and what will you do?

[Ref.]

Dead eyes of hope...
City of the lost souls!
Dead eyes of pain...
City of the damned!

[II.]

There is no excuse, is this now too late?
World is turning his face from us
Raining tears of the earth so painful are
The world is dying, screaming wild
Dead bodies on the streets, anger!
River of blood in front of you
Giant funeral, the end of the ends
Desert of the graves and burning himes
