She's standing there
with her perfect hair.
I'd ask her to dance.
Make such a romance.
Lofting I turn
i'm heading her way.
each step that I take brings closer to fate.

Build up the courage to go say hello.
She looks me in the eye and flatly says no.
Rejected I run outside for some punch.
Put on my headphones and listen to punk.

Just as I feel like
I want to leave
this really nice girl walks right up to me.

Her stunning red dress
and her black converse on.
She says dont worry and takes me by the arm.

Prom isn't so bad afterall.
starting that night I met my punk rock prom girl.
Prom isn't so bad afterall.
starting that night I met my punk rock prom girl.
