"Take Me Home"

You're not much of a talker, so I thought you were wise Now I know there's a sorrow not always so easy to recognize I cry, baby, I cry

There's a light in the distance, there's a darkness in side
If there's no way to save us then maybe at least there's a way to survive
Baby, I cry

And I took you for granted, you took me by surprise
I was there right behind you so I never got the chance to look into your eyes
Baby, I cry

So sing me a love song and take me home
Take me home, don't be so hard on yourself
Daybreak is long gone, so take me home Take me home, oh baby what else can we do just take me home

There's one time to live there's a million to die
If you look at the people you love they are fighting a war deep inside
Baby, I cry

And we're all passers-by and we're all just a heartbeat away from that shimmering light
Baby, I cry

So sing me a love song and take me home
Take me home, don't be so hard on yourself
Daybreak is long gone so take me home
Take me home, baby what else can we do just take me home

And I took you for granted, you took me by surprise
I was there right behind you so I never got the chance
to look into your eyes

Baby, I cry
