I've been lying here and wide awake
Til the night dies out and day to break
Every minute seems like endless hours
When I'm with you

I miss your eyes, your smile, and lovely face
I can't forget your sweet embrace
We both could share our endless dreams if you were here

Doesn't matter if I'm alone
I got a place I call my own
I don't care if you're away
Coz I know you'll be back someday,
Someday

I guess it's better if we were off that way
We'll find ourselves and come what may
If I could have one wish then I will beg
For you to stay

Oh.oh.ohhh...
Oh.oh.ohhh...

I've been lying here and wide awake
The sun has gone for the moon to take
I never thought that we could end like this Wish you were here

....someday...
