The night may seem so long But it will be over soon When I get home There's so much here to gain But they all don't mean a thing, If you're not here Chorus:1 I'm on my way, of slowly breaking away Your love will lead me through My way back to you We've been through it all before But I don't mean to Ignore You at all The wounds may heal away But scars are there to remain Reminds the pain Repeat chorus: 1 Chorus: 2 I'm on my way, of slowly breaking away Your love will lead me through Got no where else to go, I'm on my back to you The night won't be that long As soon as I get back home Back to you...
