I I need it fast
I am bomb about to explode

Runnin' away from you
I'm loosing grip
I'm about to loose my mind
Now I'm leaving it all behind before
I ran out of time

Chorus:

I'm drifting away Where my heart belongs
I'm drifting away
Till I find my way back home

No, nobody cares
Not a single soul when I disappear
When, will it pass me by?
This pain to hold crushing me till I die

(Repeat) and chorus)

I I've had enoguh
I am bomb about to explode

Runnin away from you
I'm loosing grip
I'm running out time
I ran out of time
I'm drifting away where my heart belongs
I'm drifting away
Till I find my way back home
