"Love Me Now, Hate Me Soon"

Feel sorry now our love died young
It seems too late so tell me what have I done
Is it wrong or is it right
To let you go I know you?ll be gone out of sight

Ohh, you?re the reason why I?m here
Were bound for our love
Made promises we?ll never part

Ohh, you?re the reason why I?m still here
All those sleepless nights
I know now what I want
And baby it?s you

You love me now then hate me soon
When things get rough oh why you
Blame it on the moon
Is it wrong or is it right
To let you go I know
You?ll be gone out of sight
