People say I can't see you today
I'm just a role in a river run
I can't see you with a river run

And people say you don't look like me today
I don't want to look like you
You small you seeing fool

And all the colours, all the colours
Fade to one, white, black, red, blue,
I see them all as one

And all my ???? I feel today
It doesn't really matter
Cause your going anyway

I dust my slippers down and put them on my feet
I can't help but lie to you
I can't help but clean my feet

A little white, little white, in a little while
I fell through the gap
And the ????????

Brown sea, Brown sea round
Can you see my life?

Stop there, wait a minute, I didn't ask you to step in it
I don't want to shake your hand
I'm just a man lay on the ground

I _____ love to love yer
But I don't ever know yer
