I was standing on the mountain

Back against the world

Left it all behind me

How my life had turned

Seen so much destruction

The fear upon your skin

Don't let it turn against you

Drive you down again
Caught up in the moment

Accelerated dream

Possessed by a notion

Of how my life should be
All you true believers

You gotta move on, gotta move on, gotta move on

All you true believers

You gotta move on with your life
Pick up your pretty head girl

Stop crying to yourself

Run into the wild places far from here

We are darker angles

Black lightning in our heads

We are far beyond the moment

Too far to care

Standing on the mountain

Our backs against the world

When we leave it all behind us

How our lives have turned

All you True Believers

You got to move on got to move on got to move on

All you True Believers

You got to move on with your life

How do you bleed

How do you shine

How do you bleed

How do you shine

I was standing on the mountain

My back against the world

Left it all behind me

How my life had turned

I've seen so much destruction

The fear upon your skin

Don't let it turn against you

Drive you down again

All you True Believers

You got to move on got to move on got to move on

All you True Believers

You got to move on with your life

Got immortal skin

Got a mortal life

Want to be immortalized

Living in forever skies

I want to live forever

Yeah

Got immortal skin

Got a mortal life

Want to be immortalized

Living in forever skies

I want to live forever

Got a mortal life

Got immortal skin
