"Tell Me"

The sea at peace in the afternoon,
and everything becomes as it was before.
I play with the sand at my feet,
without wanting I draw your name.

How many times did I call you in the night,
How many times did I look for you.
For my memories I return and I don't lose my faith.

Tell me what it is that I can do, how can I have you,
in my life.
Let's forget yesterday and start again,
without lies.
Tell me what it is that I can do, how can I have you,
in my life.

You've told me that you feel the same,
and that you felt bad like me.
Don't let your pride,
decide for us two.

Because you know that I love you,
and everything that I told you isn't true.
Leave your fears, we can if you want,
try again ...

Tell me what it is that I can do, how can I have you,
in my life.
Let's forget yesterday and start again,
without lies.
Tell me what it is that I can do, how can I have you,
in my life.

You and I know
that we can't live like this.
Come back to me ?

Tell me what it is that I can do, how can I have you,
in my life.
Let's forget yesterday and start again,
without lies.

Tell me what it is that I can do, how can I have you,
in my life.
Tell me, tell it to me.
