He asks questions
Cannot avoid the answers still
Hearts of wisemen
Are lying quiet like a stone
Let your love be
Like a misty hurting rain
Coming softly, the flood in the river
Love her eyes, so intense I can't hide

Chorus
But you say I'm fine
Leave it behind
This west coast religion
You say I'm fine
Leave it behind
This west coast religion
Ooooooh
Your absence
Makes the longing hard to forget
Pure black sand
On the dune reflects my belief
Keep the light on all the time
Satisfy my lover eyes
Love her eyes

Chorus x3
